Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, According to the Small Business Survival Foundation, South Dakota ranks first in entrepreneurial friendliness; and,

Whereas, According to the Department of Labor, most of the new jobs created throughout the United States in the past decade have come from the creative efforts of entrepreneurs and small businesses; and,

Whereas, Entrepreneurs have been the source of economic innovation throughout the history of the nation, and the entire society has been improved because of the new ways of doing things that have been brought about by people who market their innovations; and,

Whereas, Economically independent entrepreneurs are engaged citizens who work to improve the economic environment in their local communities, providing better opportunities for businesses to operate and a better environment for human resources they need to advance their business dreams; and,

Whereas, 70 percent of high school students want to become entrepreneurs, and entrepreneurial skills will assist students in the future regardless of whether they work in a business owned by others or run their own business; and,

Whereas, Developing entrepreneurial knowledge, attitudes and skills through a variety of entrepreneurial activities and experiences prepares future entrepreneurs:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 24, 2007 – March 3, 2007, as in South Dakota.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
